

Dear Mr PRINS

Welcome to the latest issue of our online Quarterly Commentary.

We hope you are enjoying the electronic format of our flagship quarterly publication. Please share your feedback with us by sending an email to info@allangray.co.za.

Comments from the Chief Operating Officer
Rob Dower

We have written before about the importance of diversifying your portfolio. Without explicitly intending to do so, this issue of our Quarterly Commentary brings this to light by looking at investment opportunities in Africa and Australia. While these pieces were written by individuals miles apart, they touch on similar themes, and in fact... read more

The Allan Gray Africa Equity Fund celebrates 15 years - Andrew Lapping & Nick Ndiritu

As the Fund celebrates its 15th anniversary, we look back and consider how... read more

Sasol: A history of underestimation - Rory Kutisker-Jacobson

Sasol is our clients' largest equity investment. Rory looks at the investment case for the company. When valuing a... read more

Do not confuse stability with safety - Ben Preston

Ben discusses one of the biggest investment trends of recent times - the huge and unprecedented decline in bond yields to today's low levels... read more

Equity opportunities down under - JD de Lange & LJ Collyer

Allan Gray Australia examines whether investing in Australian equities makes sense for a South African investor... read more

Allan Gray Orbis Foundation update - Anthony Farr

The Foundation strives to improve the entrepreneurial pipeline by focusing on improving South African youths' perceptions of their own capabilities and... read more